About Us

Established in 1995, we are a specialist Project Management company working across all sectors, including; IT, financial services, defence, construction, oil & gas, life sciences & health, telecommunications, FMCG, transportation, central & local government.

Whether you are looking for recruitment, consultancy or training our business is designed to meet your needs with a range of complementary services.

We distinguish ourselves from traditional consulting companies and recruitment agencies by providing a range of services that encompass both specialities. Our proven project management expertise, customer service and ROI make us a partner of choice.

- We have an excellent client satisfaction record and have never had an engagement cancelled.
- All our employees hold professional Project Management qualifications (APM & PRINCE2).
- We sponsor post-graduate academic research into Project Management.

Recruitment

Recruitment can be a time consuming process for HR & line managers, particularly for specialist roles. We will save you time and effort with all of your permanent, contract and interim project management roles.

- Only the best candidates who have successfully passed through our two stage technical interview process will be submitted to you.
- All recruitment is performed by our professionally qualified (APM, PRINCE2 & CIPD) project management experts.
- High calibre candidates are constantly added to our extensive database thanks to our high profile within the project management industry.
- We subscribe to all of the major online job boards and reach thousands of candidates each week with our subscriber based Vacancies Bulletin.
- We can provide advice on remuneration & qualifications and can perform Project Management & software competency assessments.

We have been selected as the preferred supplier for many organisations looking for permanent, contract and interim recruitment. These clients recognise our project management expertise and the resulting quality of our candidates.

Uniquely for contract and interim requirements we can provide our own employees and associates as well as contractors. Unlike agencies, we have considerable project management expertise that you can draw on during an engagement.

“Wellingtone helped us quickly recruit a Project Manager that matched our needs exactly. Thank you!”

Training

Do you struggle to find courses that match the training needs of your organisation? Do attendees have difficulty gaining practical benefit from course material? We customise all our courses to match your exact training needs, project methodology, environment and ways of working.

- Our courses are designed to enable attendees to immediately apply practical Project Management techniques.
- All exercises can be undertaken using attendees own projects and experiences, giving them valuable skills they can apply the next day.
- Our courses have been developed to cover the full scope of Project Management. Select specific content from across the range to create the perfect training programme for your organisation.
- We receive excellent feedback from attendees and all of our clients have placed repeat bookings

All our course attendees receive detailed course material and we encourage follow-on contact with our trainers to ensure they gain maximum benefit. Courses can be delivered at your offices or at our training centres. Alternatively we can arrange training facilities convenient for you.

“Wellingtone took the time to understand our specific business requirements and training needs and developed a training plan to deliver against those needs. Marvellous!”
